COMMUNITY BANK OF THE BAY EXPANDS BRANCH PRESENCE WITH LARGER DANVILLE OFFICE

ANNOUNCES DECEMBER GRAND OPENING

OAKLAND, CA, DECEMBER 5, 2014 – Community Bank of the Bay (CBB) announced today its new Danville, CA office location. The new, larger office at 156 Diablo Road has a long history of serving as home to a number of successful Danville banks. Driven by CBB’s steady growth in the Diablo Valley market the larger office will allow the bank to expand staffing and services to meet the growing needs of its client partners and local community.

CBB opened its first office in Danville in 2010 after a successful capital campaign that received strong support from Diablo Valley investors and became a full service branch in 2012.

“We are gratified that our community focused approach to banking has been so well received. Our Danville office is staffed with some of the Valley’s most respected banking professionals, including Margie Perry, Mike Skubic, David Meyer, Daniel Fujimoto, Walt Trembley and Ana-Maria Sagastegui, who all have deep business and personal ties to the local community,” says CBB president & CEO William Keller. “And our market knowledge and presence is further enhanced by local directors Jack Hounslow and Jim Mayer who themselves previously led two very successful Danville-based community banks as well as chairman of the board Bill Purcell.”

CBB will host a grand opening celebration on Thursday, December 11 at 6 pm. “We invite CBB clients, partners and all members of the local business community to come see our new office, meet the team and support the Capes4Heroes charity,” added Danville office manager Margie Perry.

About CBB: Community Bank of the Bay (CBYAA) serves the financial needs of closely held businesses and professional service firms, as well as their owner-operators and non-profit organizations throughout the San Francisco Bay Area. CBB is a member of the FDIC, an SBA Preferred Lender, and a CDARS depository institution, headquartered in Oakland, with offices in Danville, San Jose and San Mateo, CA. It is California’s first bank to be certified as a Community Development Financial Institution and one of only three CDFI banks operating in the Northern California market. The bank is recognized for establishing the Bay Area Green Fund to provide financing to sustainable businesses and projects and supports economic and environmentally responsible values. Additional information on the bank is available online at BankCBB.com.
